

STAR YOUTH ASSOCIATION (SYA) - CHETHANA PROJECT, GOOTY

A Brief Report on FRB Activities for the Period of April 2016 to September 2016

In this reporting period of April 2016 to September 2016 SYA are conducted and implemented the following activities.

1. Base line study
2. Selection of new chethana farmers
3. Seed distribution
4. Conducted Trainings and Programmes

1. Base line study: During the month of August-2016 our Facilitator Support of Ms.H.Hayathun conducted Base line survey meeting in the village of Chinnavaduguru.

2. Selection of farmers: In the month of August 2016 the Facilitator Support was select 10 farmers and farming a new seed saver Group in Chinnavaduguru village. After the formation of Seed Saver Group the Facilitator Support visits the Plots of 10 Farmers.

3. Seed distribution: On 26 September-2016 the Facilitator Support Conduct a meeting with farmers Seed Saver group. In this meeting distribute Javari seed to 10 farmers each farmer 3.5 Kgs can be distributed.

4. Conducting Trainings and Programmes:

4.1 Non Pesticide Management (NPM) Training:

Our Facilitator Support organized NPM training on 23rd September 2016 in the village of Chinnavaduguru. In this training discuss about NPM methods. She explained process of preparation of some varieties of Decoctions, Panchagavva and also she demonstration of Drava Beejamrutham. She explained about the benefits of used to organic methods in Agriculture and also sharing about the benefits of cultivation in organic methods. After the completion of training she distributes NPM material to the participated farmers.

Farmers Feedback on NPM Training:

Mr .K. Narayana Reddy says that it is better advice to the farmers the production methods of organic manures.

Mr .V. Vannappa says that avoid pollution of Soil, Air, Water and Food cannot use the Pesticides, chemicals we must only used organic manures by the future generations Non pollution food, water and air can be given.

Mrs. K. Sunanda says that use of organic manures and preparation of leaf decoction put in Pamphlets and disperses, it is use for us.

Date	Name of the Training	Participants	PRI Member
23.09.2016	NPM Training	Male-33 Female 9	Mr.G Pullanna – President and Mr.K. Narayana EX- President

4.2 Nutrition Education Training:

On 26th September 2016 Organized Nutrition Education Training in the Village of Gooty Ananthapuram. The Teenage Girls, Anganwadi worker and farmers are participated in this training. In this training the participants are learning about awareness on Local Greens, Millets, important uses of Millets and important uses of some Nutrients. In the same time explained about the Nutrition traditions how to support the profit of health.

Learning's:

Ms. T. Vijaya Lakshmi: She was sharing suggestion on Nutritious Food and their importance of health issues.

Ms.T. Rangamma: She was sharing suggestions on importance of Traditional Food and Millets, Nutrition traditions on Local Greens and their uses are learned this training.

Date	Name of the Training	Participants	Resource person
26.09.2016	Nutrition Education Training	Female- 24 Teenage Girls-11	T. Vijayalakshmi -Teacher

Farmers Suggestions:

Ms.Savithri says that to Protect our families health we advice Farmers to cultivate the Millets , for further Diet that is Korra, Satta, Ragi, and Jonna Millets and explained the benefits of Millets it is praise to know.

4.3 Recipe Demonstration:

Our Facilitator Support was conducted Recipe Demonstration Programme on 30th September 2016 in the village of Gooty Ananthapuram. In this training programme she says that after the harvest season the production of Millets should be increased and knows the making of dishes with Millets and its main aim of this training. The Participants of this training to know the varieties of dishes should be made by Millets and preparations of snacks with Millets.

Suggestions of Participants:

Ms.C.K Radhamma, Angan Wadi Worker in Gooty Anantapuram village says that it is better to cook varieties of dishes should be made by Millets and it is better to supply the Foods of Ragi, Korra in Anganwadi centers.

Ms.Bayamma Multi Purpose Health Assistant has suggested that it is better to take the food made by Ragi, Korra, Satta and Jonna for Women, Pregnant ladies and children's and also she says that in houses it is better to made by snacks with Millets.

Date	Name of the Training	Participants	Resource person
30.9.2016	Recipe demonstration	Female -30	1.P.CK Radha A.W.W 2. S. Bayamma – Multi Health Assistant 3. A.Varalu – ASHA Worker.